MANDATORY TRAVEL MEMO

A. The travel arrangements of the regional board require the attention and services of every SRBLSA board member. The mandatory events to be traveled are dependent upon the direction of the Regional Chair. All of the events outlined within the annual schedule are non-negotiable; these events are not to be missed for any reason. Whether the events will happen in person will be dependent on the stage of the pandemic and the guidance of health officials. As mentioned previously this may include, but is not limited to, traveling to various retreats and conventions and extracurricular work as prescribed by the position or assigned by the Regional Chair and/or the national counterpart.

The following 4 events are mandatory:

- i. Joint Board Retreat (JBR) [Date and location may vary but traditionally held during the early part of summer break, location designated by National Chair but should rotate between regions]
- ii. Sub-Region Academic Retreat and Community Service Event [Date and location may vary but traditionally held during the end of September/beginning of October]
- iii. SRBLSA Annual Regional Convention [Date and location may vary but traditionally it is held during the last week of January or first week in February. The location should rotate between sub-regions]
- iv. SRBLSA New Board Transition Meeting [Date may vary but traditionally held on the last day of the Annual Convention]
